MESSAGE

I am happy to learn that the First World Parliament on Spirituality is being held at Hyderabad from December 17-21, 2012.

I am happy to know that a large number of delegates from across the world will participate in this conference which aims to realize the noble goal of "Earth is One, Truth is One, We are One".

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam – All world is one family has been our philosophy since times immemorial. Sarve Bhavantu Sukhinah – May all be happy – say the Upanishads.

I commend the idea of such a gathering on a single platform, of spiritual and social leaders from various traditions, religions, and nations coming together to promote universally accepted values of compassion, service, caring, sharing, harmony and peace.

I wish the Conference all success.
